

Hi everyone,

Welcome to the very first Two for the Row'd newsletter!

Firstly, thank you for subscribing. Whether you've been following us since day one or you've only recently discovered our page, we're delighted to have you along for the ride.

For those who don't know us, we're Nicola and Pádraig, a husband-and-wife travel team from Carlow, Ireland.

Between us, we've visited more than 60 countries and territories, and we love sharing honest reviews, hidden gems, travel tips and a few funny mishaps along the way.

MORE ABOUT US

OUR LATEST ADVENTURE
JAMAICA

Over the past two weeks we explored Montego Bay, Negril, Rose Hall Great House and Bob Marley's birthplace in Nine Mile.

Some highlights included:

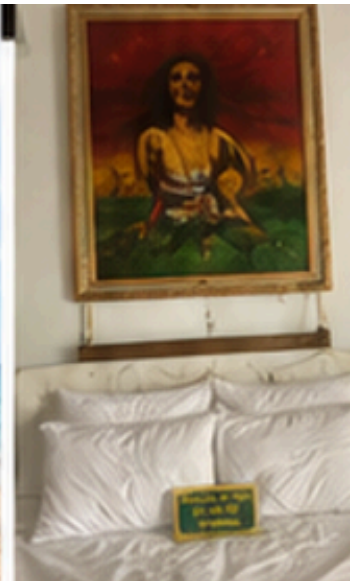

- Visiting the legendary Nine Mile Mausoleum
- Exploring the haunted Rose Hall Great House
- Meeting wonderful local people
- Discovering some fantastic food and drink
- Filming lots of new content that will be appearing on our social channels soon

Keep an eye on our Facebook, Instagram, TikTok and YouTube over the next few weeks for all the videos!

TRAVEL DEAL OF THE MONTH

We've just updated our Klook discount page with the latest promo codes and offers.

Before booking attractions, tours, rail passes or airport transfers, make sure to check if there's a discount available first.

HIDDEN IRISH GEM

This month's hidden gem is Haroldstown Dolmen in County Carlow.

At over 5,000 years old, it's older than the Egyptian pyramids and sits quietly in the countryside just outside Tullow. Most people drive straight past it without ever knowing it's there.

BREW FOR TWO

We're still on our mission to find the best coffee spots in Ireland.

If you've discovered a café that's worth the detour, hit reply and let us know – we'd love to visit it!
