OCTOBER WITH TWO FOR THE ROW'D

TWOFORTHEROWD.COM

Real trips. Real experiences. Two people forever plotting the next one.

This month: autumn sun destinations, our favourite European city breaks, Christmas market planning (yes, already!), and a whirlwind day in Liverpool with the Beatles, the Cavern Club and a very tight flight home.

CAN YOU REALLY DO LIVERPOOL IN A DAY?

We took on Liverpool in one whirlwind day — Beatles Magical Mystery Tour, the Cavern Club, sightseeing, and flying home that night. Spoiler: yes, you absolutely can.

Our verdict: Liverpool is absolutely doable as a day trip if you plan it properly. We packed in the Magical Mystery Tour, the Cavern Club, city sights and Albert Dock before heading back to the airport that evening. It was busy, but never felt impossible.

Book your main activity first, then build the rest of the day around it. Liverpool city centre is compact enough to fit a surprising amount in.

NOT READY FOR SUMMER TO END

Sunshine, fewer crowds, and better value — Malta, Gozo, the Canary Islands & Southern Spain are calling. Shoulder-season travel at its very best.

FANCY A BIGGER ADVENTURE?

We love independent travel, but sometimes a properly organised tour just makes life easier — especially if you want to cover a lot in a short space of time without spending hours sorting transport and accommodation.

WHERE ARE WE OFF TO NEXT?

Liverpool is done and dusted — and we absolutely loved it. But true to form, we've barely caught our breath before the planning spreadsheet is open again. Next up, we're setting our sights on Poznań — because apparently sitting still for five minutes is not an option for us. Expect the usual over-planning, questionable scheduling decisions, and an attempt to squeeze far too much into far too little time.

Would you Come on a Group Trip With Us?

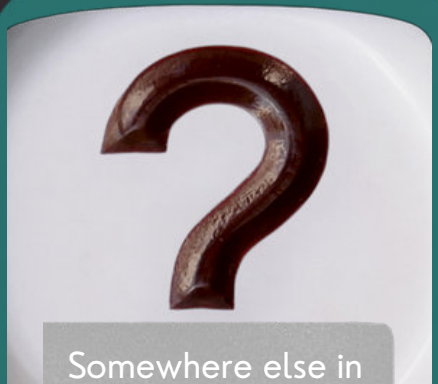

We've recently been approached by a fairly large travel company about Two for the Row'd hosting a group trip. Nothing is confirmed yet, but before we take it any further, we'd love to know if this is something you'd actually be interested in.
The company would handle the accommodation, transport, activities, bookings and customer support — we'd be there to host the trip and travel alongside the group.
We're genuinely curious — not just fishing for compliments! If enough people are interested, this could become a real Two for the Row'd hosted trip.

A Little Life Beyond Travel...

Nicola has been busy building resources for Leaving Cert French students, including weekly lessons, study guides and new downloadable exam resources at frenchexam.ie.

Nicola is also on air every Wednesday evening with Power Surge on Carlow FM — two hours of power ballads, classic rock and the occasional questionable singalong.

Podge also co-hosts The How Is He? podcast, where the chat ranges from everyday life to sport, stories and whatever else takes their fancy.

And in between all that, we're still updating Two for the Row'd and planning the next escape.

Until next time,
Nicola & Podge
